

Reciprocity of Continuing Education Unit Credit Between AMT and NAHUC

AMT Annual Educational Program: NAHUC approved credit

The Education Board of the National Association of Health Unit Coordinators, Inc. (NAHUC) approved select sessions that were eligible for NAHUC contact hours during AMT's 80th Educational Program on July 1-5, 2018, in Washington, D.C.

NAHUC Annual Education Conference: AMT approved credit

The Director of Education of the American Medical Technologists (AMT) has approved select sessions that are eligible for AMT CEUs during National Association of Health Unit Coordinators, Inc. (NAHUC) 37th Annual Education Conference on August 1-3, 2018, in Baltimore, Maryland.

For more information about the conferences, you may visit

<http://www.nahuc.org/#/conference/4580413006>

NAHUC Annual Conference

The following sessions are related to the AMT continuing education requirements and have been approved for 1.5 AMT contact hours.

- Patient Experience (1.5 hours)
- High Reliability: The Why, The How, and the What (1.5 hours)
- Avoidable Suffering (1.5 hours)
- Blending Diverse Cultures to Work Together to Deliver Patient Care (1.5 hours)
- A Two-Way Street: Sharing Generational Positives (1.5 hours)
- Trends in Diabetes Care and Treatment (1.5 hours)
- Falls and Medication Safety (1.5 hours)
- Forensic Nursing: Crime Scene Investigation at the Bedside (1.5 hours)

The AMT session participants should submit NAHUC CE activities via AMTrax on AMT's website at www.americanmedtech.org or email to ccp@americanmedtech.org. Retain all transcripts for auditing purposes.